

Jacob Fisher, Private, Co. E, 65th OH Regiment, U.S.A.

1842 According to the Official roster of Ohio soldiers, Fisher was twenty-two when he joined the U.S. Army. This places his date of birth around this time.

1863 June: According to the U.S. Civil War Draft Registrations Records, Fisher was a resident in Hancock County, OH when he registered for the draft.

1864 October 13: According to the Official roster of Ohio soldiers, Fisher enlisted in the U.S. Army as a substitute for a one year period of service.

November 30: Fisher was killed in action while fighting at the Battle of Franklin. He was buried in the Stones River National Cemetery, Murfreesboro, Rutherford County, TN.